Sir,

With reference to your official memorandum No: 953 dated the 30th June 1893 forwarding for report a petition from Kuidde Gowda and others of Doddakallahally Malur Taluk, complaining of the imposition of the Inam settlement of a Jodi of 2 pagodas (Rs 5-13-1) on a Devadayam Inam attached to the temple of Sri Tirumala-Davaru in the said Village, I have the honor to submit the accompanying accompanying copies of the marginally noted correspondence between this office and the Inam Superintendent together with the original Vernacular records bearing on the subject as per Perish attached thereto from which it appears that the godi imposable at the settlement was 2 Hanams (R a p 4-9-4) and not 2 pagodas as actually charged and to request therefore that you will be good enough to obtain the orders of Government for the settlement being revised and the excess godi complained of remitted.

Sir,

⊗ Be obliged if returned.—

Adverting to the enclosed correspondence ending with the Malur Amildar's report No 546 dated 31st March 1894 regarding the inspection at the Inam Settlement of a Jodi of 2 pagodas (Rs. a. p. 5. 13. 1) an a Devadayam Inam attached to the temple of Shree Tirumaladevaru at Doddakallahalli in the Mastı Hobly of the Malur Taluk, I have the honor to forward herewith for reference and obliging return the Devadaya Jari Inamti accounts of the Taluk for 1833 obtained from the Devans office from which it will be observed that the Jodi which the Inamdar enclosed to pay was 2 fanams (Rs. a. p. 9-4) and not 2 pagodas as fixed at the settlement.—

The charge of this higher Jodi seems to have led to the relinquishment of the Inam to the prejudice of the temple service and a complaint preferred to Government in the matter by certain persons interested in the Inam has been forwarded to this office.

Order thereon No

166. R. 11/8/94

The temple was enjoying the marginally noted Inam lands in the Dodda Kallahalli village of the Malur Taluk. During the Inam Settlement in 1868, the Jodi thereon was erroneously entered as 2 Pagodas or Rs 5-13-4 instead of 2 Fanams or Rs 4-9-4. The Inam was therefore relinquished and the same resumed to Govt on account of failure to pay Jodi. The lands are now in the possession and enjoyment of the Archak of the temple. He is willing to give the lands to the temple, if they are restored to the Institution on the former Jodi of 2 Fanams or Rs 0-9-4.
